THEY CALLED FOR HIS BOY TO DEFEND HIS COUNTRY

English Workingman Responds That He Has Worked for 30 Years and Does Not Own an Inch of Soil and That His Boy Has No Country Worth Fighting For—Open Letter to Lord Derby Copied From London Newspaper Show How Some Englishmen Feel.

To Lord Derby. My Lord,—At the request of many thinking people, consisting of I.L.P.-ers, B.S.P.-ers, Brotherhood members, Co-operators, Fabians, Quakers, Conservatives, Liberals, and many "Have Naughts" who work jolly hard for a living, I take this opportunity of answering the letter which you recently addressed to my son. Had we not first of all received your request addressed from the War Office, we should not have had the presumption to write to a person in your exalted position.

Allow me, as parent, to thank you for the kind interest you are displaying in one of my children. I appreciate it all the more when I consider the terrible struggles his mother and I have faced during the last thirty years.

I cannot expect your lordship to understand the difficulty of rearing nine children on a miserable wage different. Possessing as you do almost 70,000 acres of Lancashire soil, with a rentroll which must be creeping on to half a million per year, I can quite understand the wonderful patriotism and love of country which permeates your breast.

I am a country lover also, but, alas, I do not possess one solitary inch of soil, neither do I own any shares, stock, bonds, or aught except—debts. Under these circumstances your lordship may perhaps pardon my presumption in putting not only my position before you, but the
